whelan's statement that Condon insisted upon having the manhole cover down is explained by Mr. Sentenne. He says that having no right in the sewer, Condon thought the chances of his discovery were very slight with the cover down. Whelan was to go to the manholc every few minutes, pull open the cover and keep a lookout for Condon. It was while doing so that Policeman Jones, of the East Thirty-fifth street station, saw Whelan, and believing him to act queerly accosted him and then took him into custody after he told of Condon's being below in the sewer.

Whelan was at work again to-day in a sewer at South Fifth avenue and Spring street. He reiterated his story, from which he hasn't varied one lota.

Achille Sentenne, who is in charge of the work, was at the sewer department, 31 Chambers street, to-day. Supt. Webb instructed him to obtain the last known address of Condon. He is believed to have lived somewhere on Second avenue, but neither Mr. Sentenne nnor any of his workmen know the number. He has a sister, a Mrs. Sullivan, who lives on East One Hundred and Thirty-sixth street.

The sewer was thoroughly explored on Sunday, but no trace of Condon was found. Before he went into the sewer he changed his leather boots for a pair of long rubber ones, and he handed Whelan his cap and outside pen jacket. All these things were found with Whelan.

Panic in a Twelfth Street Crowded "Double-Decker."

Baby Injured by Its Mother's Fall While Going Down the Escape.

A fire of mysterious origin caused a East Twelfth street, early this morning, and but for its timely discovery would have caused great loss of life.

The tenement is a "double-decker" five story brick building. In the neighbor hood it is known as the "Home of the Old Folks." It derives this name from the fact of the number of aged people who have long lived under its roof. Henry Snyder, the housekeeper, is past eventy years of age, and he has four tenants older than himself.

Mrs. Jennie Jameson, who lives on the third floor with her husband and twoear-old child, went out at 5 o'clock to he bakery. She returned five minutes later, and as she ascended the stairs she smelled burn-ing wood. When she reached the second floor she was met by a volume of smoke, which seemed to come from the rear of the house. which seemed to come the house. There are thirteen families in the house. Few of the people were awake. Mrs. Jameson first rushed to the door of the Snyders apartment, and pounded upon it.
